Case No. 05-39603-T
Chapter 13

SUPPLEMENTAL APPLICATION BY BOLEMAN LAW FIRM, P.C., FOR ALLOWANCE OF COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES

COMES NOW, the Boleman Law Firm, P.C., (“Boleman”), counsel for (“Debtor(s)”), and respectfully applies to this Honorable Court pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 330(a) and §503(b)(2), Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 2016, and Local Bankruptcy Rule 2016-1, to allow fees for supplemental professional legal services and reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses in this Chapter 13 case, and in support of this Application represents that its attorneys have prepared or supervised the preparation of the petition, schedules and plan, have represented Debtor(s) in all matters relating to this bankruptcy and will continue to do so until dismissal, discharge, or entry of an order of withdrawal or substitution of counsel. Boleman asserts that it has provided services and incurred expenses that exceed the original estimate of legal fees and expenses. Boleman seeks compensation through the Chapter 13 Trustee for those amounts that exceed the previously approved sum of legal fees and expenses in this matter.

Initial Professional Legal Services and Fees: The total computed amount of legal fees for the time expended on behalf of the Debtor(s) for initial bankruptcy legal services is $ 2,285.50. Boleman agrees to accept on account of such initial legal services the fee of $1,500.00, which was the “no look” fee allowed by local bankruptcy rules at the time of filing and which has been allowed and paid through the Trustee and/or by the Debtor(s). Accordingly, Boleman hereby voluntarily reduces its claim for initial legal services by $ 785.50.

Nature and Charge of Fees Billed for Initial Professional Legal Services and Initial Actual and Necessary Costs: The fees and expenses provided for in the Chapter 13 Plan plus the amounts paid prepetition are the contractually agreed upon estimate of legal fees and expenses which accrued in provision of the initial bankruptcy services to include (1) analysis of Debtor(s)' financial situation; (2) advice as to whether to file a petition in bankruptcy and in which chapter; (3) preparation and review of the petition, schedules and statement of affairs with Debtor(s); (4) preparation and review of the original Chapter 13 Plan; and (5) representation of Debtor(s) at the meeting of creditors.

Supplemental Professional Legal Services and Fees: The total computed amount of legal fees for the time expended on behalf of the Debtor(s) for supplemental bankruptcy legal services is $ 12,971.00. However, as a courtesy discount to the Debtor(s) and the estate, Boleman voluntarily reduces the supplemental fees requested by $ 5,188.40. Accordingly, at this time and without waiving its right to request full compensation in the future, Boleman limits its request for supplemental fees to $7,782.60. Boleman asserts that performance of these professional legal services has benefited the estate and allowed unsecured creditors a larger than anticipated dividend.

Narrative Statement Regarding Supplemental Professional Legal Services: The previously approved legal fees compensated Boleman for the initial professional legal services of preparing or supervising the preparation of the Petition, Schedules and Chapter 13 Plan, representation of the Debtor(s) at the Section 341 First Meeting of Creditors, and attending to routine matters related to general administration of the Chapter 13 case. In support of this application for supplemental fees, Boleman provides the following Narrative Statement regarding the supplemental professional legal services provided in this case for which supplemental fees are sought:

On behalf of our client, we performed legal services necessary to respond to an Objection to Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan by Select Portfolio Systems for failure to provide for their secured claim. SPS alleged that the plan did not reflect its secured claim, nor did it reflect the debtor's home (the collateral for SPS's claim) as property of the estate. Based upon information provided by our client to us at the time of filing, she was not the titled owner of the property. As more fully explained infra, our client believed she had conveyed her interest in the property to May-Lily Lee, and individual who had assisted her in stopping a foreclosure sale of her home between the dismissal of her prior bankruptcy case and the filing of the instant case. We communicated with our client and negotiated a continuance to allow us to investigate the claim and the client's ownership of the real estate. It was determined that the party to whom the debtor deeded the property, May Lily-Lee, had not recorded the deed. Accordingly, we sustained the Objection and modified the Plan to provide for the claim as secured. In connection with the services necessary to respond to the Objection, we attended two (2) Bankruptcy Court hearings and filed one (1) Modified Chapter 13 Plan.

At the end of Debtor's first Chapter 13, her home was in foreclosure. May-Lily Lee and Debtor entered into a purchase contract whereby Lee was to pay sufficient funds to Debtor's mortgage company to reinstate the mortgage and stop the foreclosure, and it provided Debtor a period of time to "buy back" her home or find alternative housing. The Contract provided that Debtor would deed the real property to Lee, who took title subject to the mortgage. As stated previously, the initial plan did not list an ownership interest in the home as title was thought to have passed to Lee.

Lee, however, did not record the Deed. Nonetheless, from the beginning of the case Ms. Lee has asserted an ownership interest in Ms. Green's real property on the basis of a constructive trust. As such, she objected to the first modified plan for its failure to provide for her claim. Following her Objection, we communicated with our client and counsel for Lee. In an attempt to resolve the dispute, we met with Ms. Lee and her counsel, Keith Phillips, Esquire. The first hearing on Lee's Objection was continued during negotiations. At the second hearing, we sustained the Objection by agreement.

Following negotiations with counsel for Lee, the Debtor filed a second modified plan, listing Lee as a priority creditor with a claim of $16,488.13. Lee objected to the plan on the grounds that it was underfunded. She further stated she was in the process of amending her proof of claim and that, to the extent the second amended plan was interpreted to pay Lee in accordance with her proof of claim, the plan was defective in that it did not recognize Lee's ownership interest.

Chrysler Financial also objected to the second modified plan on the grounds that the plan was proposing to pay Lee's priority claim before any disbursements to Chrysler's secured claim for Debtor's vehicle. Both objections were sustained. Thereafter, we prepared and filed the third modified plan that provided for Lee's claim and interest in the real property. However, Chrysler and Lee both filed objections to the third modified plan. In addition, Chrysler filed a Motion for Adequate Protection due to the extended delay in confirmation and the lack of disbursements to Chrysler for its secured claim.

Many discussions ensued between Debtor and our firm, including several meetings at which counsel, Debtor, and members of Debtor's family who were attempting to assist her discussed the appropriate response to the various litigation. Following these discussions, we drafted and filed a formal Response to the Motion for Adequate Protection, attended the Bankruptcy Court hearing thereon, and requested a final hearing. During this time, the hearings on the pending objections were continued as negotiations with Lee stalled somewhat. The Chrysler issues, however, were settled following negotiations between counsel regarding the verbiage to be included in a settlement order. The objections were sustained, the final hearing on the Motion for Adequate Protection was continued, and a fourth modified plan was filed to include language regarding Chrysler's claim that was negotiated by counsel. Thereafter, the final hearing on adequate protection was held, where counsel announced the settlement, and a Consent Order was entered into.

On August 25, 2006, Lee objected to the Fourth Modified Plan on the grounds that the Plan failed to provide full payment totaling the value of Lee's interest in the real property at issue. Many discussions ensued between Debtor and our firm regarding the appropriate response, numerous scenarios for settling the Objection were presented, considered, and abandoned, and we communicated and met with Lee's counsel many times in various attempts to settle the dispute in a manner that would result in confirmation of the Plan. The hearing on the Objection to the Fourth Modified Plan was continued repeatedly during this process (11 times, to be exact). The settlement process was difficult and laborious, requiring significant effort on our part to attend to the repeated hearings and guide our client to an agreeable resolution. On several occasions, our client's family members assisted her in making difficult decisions in order to conclude the litigation.

In the midst of the negotiations with Lee, Select Portfolio filed a Motion for Relief from Stay, seeking relief from stay due to its allegation that our client had failed to pay three (3) postpetition mortgage payments. We communicated with our client in writing and several times by telephone regarding the Motion for Relief, and our client agreed that she was in arrears, although she disputed the arrearage amount stated by the mortgage company. Accordingly, we requested proof of payments from our client in order to analyze the arrearage statement from the mortgage company. Our client also made an additional payment to the mortgage company shortly before the preliminary hearing, further complicating the task of determining the exact postpetition arrearage amount. We communicated this information to counsel for the mortgage company and negotiated a continuance of the hearing as we reviewed the payment history and negotiated settlement. Upon resolving the issue of payments made, we negotiated a Consent Order settling the Motion for Relief whereby stay was maintained conditioned upon our client making timely postpetition payments and curing the postpetition arrearage. In connection with our services related to the Motion for Relief, we attended one (1) hearing.

Our client also fell into arrears with the Trustee during 2007, prompting the Trustee to file a Motion to Dismiss for payment default. We communicated with our client regarding her default in plan payments and counseled her regarding the appropriate response. We monitored her payments to the Trustee, forwarding a significant payment on her behalf that brought her current. At the hearing, the Trustee withdrew his Motion to Dismiss. However, our client's payment default to the Trustee had other repercussions – specifically, it triggered relief from the automatic stay as to Chrysler based upon the provisions of the previous Order Settling Motion for Adequate Protection. Accordingly, Chrysler repossessed our client's vehicle due to her payment default to the Trustee. We provided additional services to our client relating to this matter in that we had numerous communications with her and her family members to explain the basis for Chrysler's actions and to counsel her regarding these issues.

Lee and the Debtor, with counsel, ultimately reached a settlement agreement that would allow Lee's claim to be paid outside the case and allowed for Plan confirmation. The terms of a Motion to Approve Settlement and Compromise, whereby Debtor will pay Lee's claim direct, rather than through the Trustee, and Lee will be granted a deed of trust, are still being negotiated but expected to be concluded shortly. The hearings on the Fourth Modified Plan were continued until the filing of Debtor's Fifth Modified Plan on June 4, 2007, which surrendered the vehicle to Chrysler to reflect the disposition of the vehicle as referenced supra and brought the plan payments current. Debtor and Lee have agreed to finalize the Motion to Approve Settlement and Compromise without the need for further objections by Lee.

Actual and Necessary Expenses: Boleman, acting on behalf of the Debtor(s), has incurred actual and necessary expenses of $ 814.83 in this case. Expenses included in the total are expenses incurred and advanced for the Bankruptcy Court filing fee, Circuit Court filing fee for recording Homestead Deeds, credit report(s), PACER charges, printing and photocopy of client documents, postage for mailing and service of documents, and/or facsimile charges. Expenses related to photocopies are charged based on the number of printed pages at a rate of $0.15 per printed page. For example, a single-sided copy is counted as a single copy, and a double-sided copy is counted as two (2) copies. Boleman has received payment of $ 215.00 directly by Debtor(s) and $280.00 through the Chapter 13 Plan by the Standing Trustee, which amounts were intended for and applied to reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses. Thus, the balance due to Boleman for unreimbursed actual and necessary expenses incurred is $ 319.83. Boleman has received payments in the amount of $ 0.00 that exceeds the total amount sought for reimbursement of expenses and, accordingly, Boleman applies such amount to reduce the supplemental fees sought for payment through the Trustee.

Date of Filing: Debtor(s) filed a voluntary petition under Chapter 13 of the United States Bankruptcy Code on 10/06/2005.

Confirmation of Plan: The Court has confirmed Debtor's first plan as well as any modified plan(s).

Prior Fee Requests and Payments: A previously submitted Chapter 13 Plan in this matter provided for Debtor(s)' attorneys' fees and expenses as set forth above (see "Initial Professional Legal Services and Fees"). Other payments received by Boleman for reimbursement for administrative expenses are set forth above as well (see "Actual and Necessary Expenses").

Exhibits in Support: The dates, activities and time of attorneys and para-professionals who provided professional legal services are stated with specificity on an Exhibit in Support of Supplemental Fee Request that was filed with the Court and is available for review in the Clerk's Office. The actual and necessary expenses incurred by Boleman in performance of the services rendered are set forth on an Exhibit in Support of Expense Reimbursement Request that was filed with the Court and is available for review in the Clerk's Office. All time billed for services rendered is supported by contemporaneously maintained records, including but not limited to forms, notes, letters, draft documents maintained in the physical file, and notes maintained in the firm's computer case management system (Abacus).

No Retainer/No Billing of Client: Boleman neither holds a retainer or other funds of Debtor(s) to secure payment of any amounts allowed by this Court as compensation or reimbursement of expenses nor has Boleman sent any bill for services to Debtor(s). All amounts received or paid, whether through the Chapter 13 Trustee or directly by the Debtor(s) are disclosed supra and fully detailed in the aforesaid Exhibits in Support.

Sufficient Plan Reserves/Prejudice to Creditors: Boleman has reviewed Debtor's Chapter 13 Plan and budget and believes that the Chapter 13 Plan does not provide sufficient reserves allowing payments requested herein to be made without prejudice to any creditor. Rather, the payments requested herein, if allowed, would result in prejudice to non-priority unsecured creditors as described below. Pursuant to Local Rule 2016-1(C)(1), such prejudice has been "completely, fully, and adequately disclosed" to all unsecured creditors by the Notice hereof and the detailed description provided as follows: The currently confirmed plan in this case provides a dividend of 12% for unsecured claims, or total payments of $3,974.75; however, the Chapter 13 Trustee currently projects a dividend of 30.64%, or total payments of $10,148.86, will be paid through the plan for such claims. If the payments requested herein are approved, non-priority unsecured claims will be projected to receive a dividend of 6.17%, or total payments of $2,046.43.

Reservation of Rights: Boleman reserves the right to withdraw any offer to reduce its fees (both initial and supplemental) and further reserves the right to request an additional award of legal fees and reimbursement of expenses for any time or expense incurred in defense of the instant Application for Compensation.

As an attorney for the Debtor(s) herein, I do make oath that the above statements are true to the best of my knowledge and belief, that no agreement has been made, and that no understanding exists for a division of fees contrary to the provisions of Section 504 of the Bankruptcy Code. Further, upon review of contemporaneously maintained documents and records, the undersigned asserts that all services described herein were, in fact, provided to the debtor, and all costs have, in fact, been incurred. It is also Boleman's belief that all services and costs were necessary, and that the reduced fees requested are reasonable.

WHEREFORE, Boleman Law Firm, P.C., respectfully requests this Honorable Court to approve fees in compensation for supplemental professional legal services and reimbursement of unpaid expenses in the total amount of $ 8,102.43 as follows:

a. Award fees in compensation for supplemental professional legal services in the amount of $ 7,782.60, as and for reasonable attorney's fees for professional services rendered in this case;

b. Approve Boleman's application of the prepetition payment by Debtor(s) and the payments made by the Trustee to reimburse its actual and necessary expenses, as disclosed herein, thereby resulting in a balance due to Boleman of actual and necessary expenses in the amount of $ 319.83;

c. Approve the reduction in total payments to non-priority unsecured creditors as described supra without requiring the Debtors to file a Modified Plan; and

d. Order total amount of fees and unpaid expenses to be paid through the Chapter 13 Plan as an administrative expense claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C §503.

Respectfully Submitted,

COMES NOW, the Boleman Law Firm, P.C., ("Boleman"), counsel for Debtor(s), and offers the instant Exhibit in Support of Supplemental Application for Allowance of Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses filed herein.

Attorneys who have been employed by Boleman during the relevant period of time in which services have been rendered in this case and their present hourly rates for bankruptcy practice are listed below. Boleman attorneys limit their practice to bankruptcy matters. For purposes of calculation of attorney fees and as a discount to Debtor(s), Boleman asserts that a blended, discounted hourly rate of $215.00 per hour validly represents a reasonable rate that is equal to or less than a rate based upon the individual rates of each attorney who provided services.
